Robert S. Mueller, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Washington, D.C., announces the appointment of Willie T. Hulon as Special Agent in Charge of the Detroit FBI.

Mr. Hulon was born in Memphis, Tennessee. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Rhodes College, Memphis, Tennessee, in 1979. Mr. Hulon served as a Memphis Police Officer from 1980 until 1983.

Mr. Hulon began his career as an FBI Special Agent in September 1983. After graduating from the FBI Academy, he was assigned to the FBI Office in Mobile, Alabama and subsequently served in Chicago, Illinois, and San Antonio, Texas. During those assignments he conducted drug, gang, domestic terrorism, and violent crime investigations. Mr. Hulon was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent of the Violent Crimes and Major Offenders Squad in San Antonio in May 1991. While in San Antonio, he formed and supervised a multi-agency task force which received recognition from the United States Attorney General for the successful prosecution of a Texas prison gang. In March 1995, he was transferred to FBIHQ and served as a Supervisory Special Agent in Violent Crimes/Fugitive Unit until February 1996. Following that assignment, Mr. Hulon was promoted to Assistant Inspector in the Inspection Division, FBIHQ.

In June 1997, he was designated as Chief of the Interstate Theft/Government Reservation Crimes Unit at FBIHQ. In December 1997, Mr. Hulon was appointed as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the St. Louis Division. He was promoted to Inspector, Office of Inspections, Inspection Division, FBIHQ in December 2000. In July 2001, Mr. Hulon was designated Chief Inspector for the FBI.
